

I am opposed to the FCC ruling that is to take effective on August 25th changing the Consumer Telephone Protection Act of 1991 which would limit how our local IFMA chapter corresponds with our members. The limitations in the proposed change is very non-productive in this day and age of extreme time restraint and busy work schedule.